Featured Callers & Teachers

Bob Dalsemer — Bob Dalsemer, from Hayesville, North Carolina specializes in calling traditional American contra, square and circle dances. He has composed a number of new dances in traditional style and published two collections of traditional square dances. In addition to calling, He plays fiddle, guitar, mandolin and piano accordion. He is a musician for Sticks In the Mud Morris, Rural Felicity Garland Dancers, Dames Rocket Northwest Morris and a member of the Dog Branch Cats string band.

Chip Summey — Chip has been clogging since 1982. He is a Certified Judge and Certified Clogging Instructor, with active participation in leading training sessions. He has taught and judged all over the US, including the past 17 CLOG National Conventions. He has had teams to Dance in International and World Festivals with a recent trip to Moscow, Russia and the surrounding countryside with the Southern Connection Cloggers.

Shane Gruber — Shane started his clogging career in 1989 and became a certified clogging instructor in 1996. He is an active choreographer for various organizations and leads the Shane Group Cloggers. Shane works for Michigan Network Services and teaches dance workshops in the US, Canada, Germany and the National Clogging Convention.

Music by: Notorious

Musicians Larry Unger, Eden MacAdam-Somer and Sam Bartlett bring together traditional and contemporary acoustic music from around the world, creating a dynamic, swinging sound that is sure to get you on your feet. With Eden on fiddle and vocals and Larry on guitar and banjo, their music is full of rhythmic drive and melodic candor. Their show is always new and exciting, presenting everything from traditional American and Celtic fiddle tunes to jazz, blues, and the group's original compositions.
