Featured Callers & Teachers

Ron Buchanan – Ron Buchanan began dancing as a kid and started calling in 1972. Since then he has called from Boston to LA, from Tampa to Fairbanks, and hundreds of dances in between. He is known for his high energy patter and teaching others to call. As a swing teacher Ron has a relaxed approach to social dancing. Famous for his “Pretzels and Dips” he has also founded “Swing Pittsburgh”.

Chip Summey – Chip is from Henderson, NC, and has vast experience in competing and winning dance competitions worldwide. He also is a CLOG national convention teacher and board member. He is well known for his many clogging choreographies

Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle – Naomi is a Clogging Country/Western and Swing Dance instructor from Columbus, Indiana. She has been teaching clogging for 28 years. She teaches Appalachian clog dancing, line dancing, couple dancing, and swing. She travels nationally and internationally teaching dance workshops

Music by: The Old 78's

The Old 78's with Curly Miller and Carole Anne Rose have been featured performers and a dance band at major festivals across the country and have taught and performed at some of the most highly regarded Fiddle and Banjo teaching camps. Their new collaboration with Ray and Melanie Palmer adds a fullness and rich musicianship that this early 1900s music had when originally performed! Ray's ability to match the melody, create counter melodies, and improvise on both the fiddle and banjo-mandolin adds an entirely new sound dimension. Melanie's baritone sax powerfully delivers the bass notes that any tuba, bass, or jug player could wish for. These two outstanding musicians have played and enjoyed the same repertoire as Curly and Carole Anne and fate has brought them together to continue the fun!
