

The Arkansas MidWinter Workshop and Ball January 12-13, 2008

The Scottish Country Dance Workshop

Robert McOwen, instructor with musicians John Turner and Pete Campbell

Registration for the Scottish Country Dance workshop, to be taught by Robert McOwen of the Boston Branch of the RSCDS, will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 12, 2008. The morning session will begin at 9 a.m. and run until noon; lunch will be provided. The afternoon session is scheduled from 1-2:30 p.m. The workshop will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the Park Hill Presbyterian Church at 3520 JFK Blvd in North Little Rock. The Fellowship Hall is located on the east side of the church.

About our workshop instructor....

Robert McOwen began Scottish country and highland dancing in Berkeley, California in 1973. He received the Teaching Certificate of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society (RSCDS) by examination in Scotland in 1980, and since then has taught at dance camps and workshops across the United States, and in Canada, Japan, and New Zealand. He also conducted the class for candidates for the Teaching Certificate for the RSCDS in Boston in 1986. Robert has also been artistic director of Scottish dance and music concerts in Boston, including Burns Night Concerts with Jean Redpath and Alasdair Fraser. As a musician, Robert has played Scottish music for dances, concerts, and on recordings with the Berkeley Scottish Players, Tullochgorum, Pipes Awa', Muckle Carffufle, and Sprig of Ivy. He has visited Little Rock in years past as Tullochgorum provided music for the 12th Night weekend. In his "spare time", Robert is a Professor and Chair of Mathematics at Northeastern University.
